Commencement exercises on Thursday evening of this week.

Children's Day at Free Baptist church next Sabbath morning.

Sixteen persons united with the Free Baptist church last Sunday.

An unusually fine list of locals from Lawrence put in an appearance this week.

Hereafter, Covert & Bartram will keep on draught the Excelsior Saratoga water.

Kalamazoo will lay the corner-stone of her new court house on the 4th of July.

Samuel Markkille of Almena, had the roof of his cattle-shed blown off in our late storm.

Quite a number of our people attended Commencement at Kalamazoo Wednesday and Thursday last.

Will Randall, at the bakery, is prepared to deal out soda-water to all who are fond of a light, cool drink.

Hartford is about to put on airs with a brown-stone front, which will be owned by Chas. Mortimer, Esq.

Prof. Russell has quite a curiosity in the shape of a double calla, a thing of which we have never before heard.

Another great slaughtering of prices by Jay of the Double store. Hose and white goods a specialty this week.

Broughton is all ready to fit out a new house company for the glorious Fourth. See his arrangements in another column.

The Knights of Maccabees will appear in the Fourth of July procession, resplendent in new regalia, which they have recently received.

Married, June 20th, by J. Hungerford, Esq., at his residence in Waverly, Mr. Ernest A. Hungerford to Miss Mary J. G. Stanley, all of Waverly.

A game of base-ball was played here last Monday between the first ones of Kalamazoo and Paw Paw; score, 13 to 16 in favor of the Kalamazoos.

It is rumored that arrangements are being made to form an ice company, to compete with Mr. Burroughs in the sale of that article next summer.

There will be union service next Sunday evening at the M. E. church. Subject, "Kinship between Man and Animals." All Bible students are invited. Read Gen. 1st chap.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union meets regularly Wednesday afternoon at half past two, at the rooms of the Y. M.
C. A. Children's temperance class at four o'clock the same day. All are invited.

The jury in the McCrone murder case at Berrien, convicted the defendant of the charge of manslaughter. The defense was an alibi, and people generally think he ought not to have been convicted. The court has suspended sentence with a view to give time for a rehearing before the supreme court.

The skating rink reopened Saturday evening with music by the band, the grand march, etc., etc. The galleries and stage were filled with spectators, who greatly enjoyed the maneuvers of the merry crowd, some of whom were very graceful. The fine new floor added much to the attractions of the rink.

We are glad to see some attention turned to the trimming of shade trees, which on many of our streets droop so low as to cause a general gloominess, neither pleasant, nor healthy. However, we would suggest that in this, as all other matters, there is a golden mean midway between the two extremes.

The Baccalaureate sermon by Rev. F. Z.

Rossiter was a very fine address, abounding in excellent suggestions, and well calculated to impress the minds of the young people to whom it was addressed, with the importance of self-control, self-culture, and the various other attributes of the true man or woman.

Albert Van Dyke and Allison Coulson of Paw Paw, have purchased the meat market of Sutter & Delano, and will keep a full and select stock of both fresh and salt meats.
These gentlemen propose to equal the best market in the country and invite the inspection and patronage of the public.—Niles Democrat.

In our report of the ratification meeting, the name of E. A. Crane was accidentally omitted from the list of speakers who addressed the meeting. The omission was due to the fact that, on account of business, Mr.
Crane expected to be unable to attend, and therefore his name did not appear upon the printed list from which our report was made.

The Chautauqua movement has been extended to include the young folks, who already have a "Reading Union." They are now to have an illustrated periodical of high character, which will be issued in July by the publishers of the far-famed WIDE AWAKE magazine, D. Lothrop & Co., Boston, who will send it free for two months to any of our readers who may request it.

Mr. Lawrence Martin of Antwerp, has, no doubt, the finest cherry orchard in Western Michigan. They are all of the Early Richmond variety, and are now being harvested and shipped to market. A visitor to his premises will behold one of the finest displays in the fruit line that can be found anywhere. The trees are all heavily laden, and the rich crimson globes are a rare treat to the eye, as well as to the palate. And we know by experience that Mr. Martin will exhibit a hearty welcome to friends who visit his orchard. The fruit is more than usually fine this season, scarcely an imperfect or wormy specimen being found among them, and will net the enterprising owner a handsome sum. We are glad of it, for his enterprising industry and care deserve success.

Long, the Ionia oxicide, has made a full confession of his terrible crime. He says he got up at midnight, went to the barn and got an oak club, came back and struck his wife three or four blows. This killed her. He then got his razor and cut his own hands and other parts of his body, took his money and hid it under the straw stack, broke the window-catch and raised it, and then gave an alarm by firing his gun out of the window, thinking that when the neighbors arrived he could satisfy them that his house had been burglarized by two murderers, who had done the crime. How many more sickening crimes of this nature are we to know of in our state before our people insist on the restoration of capital punishment?

A certain scribe of this village being an aspirant for political honors, has for some time cherished a hope of being sent as delegate to the Chicago convention in July next.
With this end in view he made a thorough survey (by telephone) of all the county al-ligates, and by dint of much muck-raking, congratulated himself that he had com-pletely mired and thereby distanced all competitors.
However, the mud was too dry to stick, and in the preliminary caucus held by the county delegates at Detroit, our would-be delegate received all of two votes, while some of the gentlemen interviewed were just perverse enough to reveal the true inwardness of the situation. Some of the old mottoes, such as "Murder will out," "The best-laid plans, etc.," occur to us. Wouldn't it be well, Ed, to "paste them in your scrap-book," or "pin them in your hat?"

Mrs. Harriet Adelaide Putnam died at her home in this village on Thursday, June 12th, aged forty-one years. The deceased had been a highly respected resident of Paw Paw for the past ten years. For a large part of this time she was obliged to support two step-daughters, to whom she was as kind as an own mother could have been, and who are left to mourn her loss, having now grown to young womanhood, and who were a great comfort and aid to her in her last illness.
Mrs. Putnam had been in poor health for a long time, and was confined to her bed since last November, suffering very severely most of the time. She was a faithful member of the Christian church of this village, and its members were cherishing in their assistance during her sickness. The two stepdaughters have the sympathy of the entire community in this, their most trying afflic-tion. Mrs. Putnam's funeral services were held at her residence on June 13th. Rev.
Mr. Brooks officiating, and were attended by a large concourse of friends and neighbors.

Electrical Events.

Harrison Steven's barn in Almena, was badly shattered by lightning last Sunday.

On Tuesday last the barn of Albert Harrison, 2 1/2 miles west of town, was set on fire by lightning. Mr. Harrison's family were all absent, but, fortunately, Mr. Conklin of Hartford, who was passing at the time, succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

Last Friday afternoon two men named Cotton and Sanders were at work on one of the farms in the Lee district, when an electrical bolt suddenly fell both to the ground, shocking them severely, though killing neither. At last reports they were slowly recovering.

Calvin Wilcox of Antwerp, together with his workmen, was employed in the hay-field last Monday, when on the approach of the storm several of the men took refuge under a small tree. But Mr. W., seeing something that needed attention in another part of the field, sent them thither; and scarcely had they left the tree, when it was shattered by a bolt of lightning, and Mr. W. was thrown from his mower. Not the least singular feature of the case that near by were other much larger trees.

A very severe electric storm passed over this place last Sunday afternoon, during which the lightning struck rather promi-nently in and around our village, fortunately however, doing but little injury. One bolt struck a tree in front of T. R. Harrison's and another near the residence of Jas.
Bennett, while a third so severely shocked Mrs. David Chapman, that it became necessary to summon a physician. Between this place and the Lee school-house, a distance of three miles, no less than 24 telephone poles were struck.

Personals.

Harry Richards is again confined to the house, on account of lameness.

Mrs. Wm. Clark is recovering from injuries sustained by a fall some two weeks ago.

Mrs. M. Howell of Fenton, will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. C. V. Burdick.
Rev. F. Z. Rossiter of Kalamazoo, filled the Presbyterian pulpit last Sabbath morning.

Will McDonald and Miss Mattie Hopkins of Kalamazoo, spent Sunday with Rose Davey.

The Lyle brothers and wives of Dowagiac, were in town last Sunday, guests of F. E.
Stevens.

Our townsman, F. E. Stevens, is a delegate to the democratic national convention at Chicago.

Miss Grace Sellick is home from Kalamazoo, where she has been attending school for the past year.

Miss Claribel Sheldon has been absent from the post-office for a few days on account of sickness.

Miss Martha L. Furness, for the past year 1st assistant in our high-school, returns to her home next Saturday.

W. E. Drury, who has been visiting here for the past two weeks, returned to his home in Wolcott, N. Y., last Monday.

Mrs. Lena Jamison nee Munger, with her recently acquired husband, is visiting her mother and sister at this place.

Junia Warner starts Saturday for San Francisco to fill the position of private secretary to the commissioner of the trans-continental association.

Mrs. E. M. Russell attended commencement exercises at Albion, Mich., the president of the college being an old class-mate.

Rev. W. C. Burns addresses the Y. M. C.
A. of Gobles this (Wednesday) evening.
Subject, "Methods of Successful Association Work."

Mrs. L. D. Smith and Mrs. E. H. King, mother and aunt of Mrs. O. F. Wood of this village, returned to their home in Ionia, last Monday.

Hon. E. W. Keightley, third auditor-general, has been invited to address the Young Men's Republican Club at the Court house, next Tuesday evening. A cordial invitation extended to all.

John Windoes and B. A. Bush of Kalamazoo, were entertained last Sabbath by Miss Grace Sellick and her friend Miss Fannie Gillett of N. Y.

Will Welch was home from Lansing last week to complete the examination which will entitle him to a diploma from our union school. We are informed that he acquitted himself very creditably.

O. W. left for Lansing last Thursday night to attend court, he being the attorney for plaintiff in the case of the Van Buren division of the Toledo and South Haven R. R.
Co. vs. Truman and Loren Lamphear.

Messrs. Van Fossen, Blackman, and Rowland, with their wives, started Monday morning for Bay City, where the Michigan Press Association will convene. From there they will take in the excursion to Mackinac and Marquette.

O. Dunham of Kalamazoo, was married on last week Monday to Miss Alexander, a most estimable young lady of that place. The happy pair left at once for an eastern tour.

The long expected union of Miss Halo Baker and Fred Stevens will occur on the 25th, at the residence of Mrs. Baker, in Danville, N. Y. The happy pair will stop here for a few days on their journey westward.

On Sunday evening, June 22d, Mr. Lewis Barnard and Mrs. L. Moses were married by Rev. E. M. Corey, at his residence. On the following morning the happy couple departed for Wisconsin, where Mr. Barnard is engaged in business. The good wishes of their many friends follow them to their new home.

The concert given on Friday evening by Miss Gertrude Snow was an eminent success, and the pupils who participated did great credit to her teaching, the eight-hand pieces, in particular, showing excellent drill.
The singing by Miss Kellogg, and playing on the cornet by Walter Smith was a musical treat, especially the duet entitled "When Morning Light."

Prof. Russell and wife have proven their hospitality by devoting one evening to the entertainment of the teachers, and another to the class of '84. On the latter occasion the class attested their appreciation of Mr.
R's labor in their behalf, by presenting an elegant silver card-receiver. In the short ten months of Mr. Russell's sojourn among us, he has won a host of friends both in school and out, and we are glad he is to remain, for we think he is "the right man in the right place."

The music and merry laughter issuing from the residence of J. W. Free on the evening of June 17, indicated that some one was having an unusually happy time. The occasion was a supper given by the Ladies' Literary Club, at which time they departed from their usual custom and honored the gentlemen with an invitation. The alacrity with which the maselines responded, and their exceptionally good behavior, will, doubtless, encourage the ladies to repeat the experiment at some future time. The president of the club professes herself entirely satisfied with five dishes of ice-cream, partaken of with five different gentlemen, but thinks only two rather an insufficient escort home!

Notice.

The ladies of the Christian church will occupy the room of J. W. Ball on Main street next 4th of July. Lunch and dinner-tables will be spread for the thousands
